

April 3, 2009

"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

Amazed about what Jesus did

An 11-year-old girl in Central Asia is close friends with M, a girl on her street. They play together a lot and go to the same after-school classes at the community center. Their parents get together sometimes—even spent part of the big New Year's holiday together.

One day the 11-year-old asked her mom to play a song on the piano. She played a worship song and then explained what the words meant. Immediately, the daughter ran upstairs and grabbed her children's Bible in the local language. She gave it to M, who took it home with her.

The very next day, M brought back the Bible, saying that she had already read the first 15 pages. She said, "It's amazing what God's Son did!" M's parents have not read the Bible, but M told them all about it!

Please pray for M and her family. Pray that they will want to know more about Jesus and will ask Jesus to be their Savior.

<http://kompray.imb.org>