"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

4-year-old G

In Japan, a little boy we call G turns 4 years old this month. His mom is a Christian, but his dad is not. Soon, G will start going to a Christian pre-kindergarten five days a week. His mom hopes G will learn more about Jesus at school and become a Christian. She hopes his dad will hear G and the other children talk about Jesus too.

G just made a new friend, M, the 4-year-old son of missionaries Kevin and Donna Qualls. G and M like to play together. Sometimes, G's parents go with him when they play. The Qualls tell them the stories of Jesus. Pray for G's whole family to hear about Jesus THIS week! Pray that his dad will want Jesus to be his Savior.

I was 10 years old when I accepted Jesus as my Savior—on Easter Sunday! He has been my best friend for all these years and I want all my friends to know Him too. You might have some friends who don't know about Jesus. Why not tell them THIS week that Jesus loves them? I'm praying with you for your friends and for G in Japan.

Tell me what happens when you tell your friend about Jesus! Just get your mom or dad to send me an email to KOMpray@imb.org. HAPPY EASTER!
