

June 5, 2009

"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

Chewing gum business

There's a precious little boy who stands on a street corner near a Christian's home. Every day is the same for that precious little boy. He stands there selling chewing gum—every day.

Our Christian friend says that he has the sweetest and most beautiful eyes. But he looks so tired and hungry. He can't be more than 10 years old, but he works all day. He wears the same dirty old clothes every day.

There are many poor children in Northern Africa and the Middle East. Some of them don't have moms and dads who take care of them, so they sell chewing gum or beg for money. Ask God to help these poor children by providing for their every need. Pray for the children that they will come to know Jesus as their Father and Protector.

<http://kompray.imb.org>