

June 19, 2009

"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

Mexico City missions to youth

Gerardo is new Christian in Mexico City. The church he goes to is called La Iglesia que Te Ama which means The Church that Loves You. Isn't that a great name for a church?

Gerardo is praying for his teenage sister. His sister is sick with bulimia, an eating disorder, so please pray that she will eat right and be healthy. Will you also pray with him for her to accept Jesus as Savior?

Two teenage missionary kids have a Saturday night youth group at their house, and Gerardo likes to go. These teens spend time praying for their Mexican friends. They tell their friends about the hope of Jesus. So many have difficult home lives, but they study God's Word together and ask Him to guide them.

Alejandro grew up in a Christian home but he never knew that he needed to trust Jesus himself. He became a Christian this year and was baptized along with 4 other youth. Now he helps lead the youth group!

Alejandro and Gerardo both love studying the Bible. Gerardo says the Lord is calling him to be a youth minister one day. The first teenager he hopes to reach is his sister.

Please pray that God will continue to use Gerardo and Alejandro, and the 2 missionary kids. Pray that they will be able to help teenagers in Mexico City who need Jesus.

<http://kompray.imb.org>