"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

Let's play ball

Do you love football? Brady, Craig and Mike do! They have been coaching football in Portugal. Portugal is a country in Europe. In most European languages, their word "football" is really soccer. But these guys are really coaching a team of Portuguese players and they play American-style football.

Brady, Craig and Mike coach the players about how to live a godly life too. For two years, they have been showing them how to love God and love others. A few team members are going to a home Bible study led by the coaches.

One player said that he needs to let Jesus be his Savior, but he doesn't want to stop living the way he does. Please pray for this player that he will let go of the sins in his life and that he will say "yes" to Jesus.

Some Christian coaches from Texas will lead a football camp this summer. Ask God to help them be strong witnesses of the love of Jesus.
