"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

Happy New Year!

Andrea Cannady, the daughter of Nick and Heather Cannady, is making a difference. She is the granddaughter of ISC missionaries, George and Fay Cannady, and she recently gave a tremendous gift to Lottie Moon. Nick explained to his daughter that her grandparents were coming home to stay after serving for almost 8 years in Botswana. When he explained the shortage of funds for missionaries, she came up with an idea: she asked people to give money for Lottie Moon Christmas offering instead of receiving gifts for her 9th birthday. Andrea raised $185.00 for the Lottie Moon Christmas offering in honor of her grandparents and all the missionaries who serve the Lord faithfully overseas.

We are celebrating New Year's and will be soon be going back to school or work (sorry to mention it). It seems like a whole year before Christmas comes again, but the need to share the love of Jesus with people all over the world never stops. THAT's why Jesus came. When you pray this year, ask the Lord to show you how you can help missionaries tell others about Jesus all through 2010.
