

February 19, 2010

"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

TAKE ME TO THE KASBAH!

Morocco is a country with some beautiful cities. There are cities on the coast that used to be military bases. They fought many battles to keep out foreigners and pirates. Yep, pirates! There are ancient (really old) walls and cannons and fortresses called "kasbahs."

A Moroccan Arab man came home one day and found a letter at his door. There was no return address. The letter told the man he should not be meeting with other Christians and he should not have a Bible. The man was scared at first. Then he opened his bible and read, "Many live as enemies of the cross of Christ...but we eagerly wait for the Lord Jesus Christ" (Philippians 3:18-20, HCSB).

If you visited Morocco, you would hear a lot about the battles and that the Moroccans won sometimes and lost other times. You probably wouldn't hear very much about Jesus. There are only a few Moroccan people who know Jesus as their Savior. Please pray for the Moroccans to have a chance to hear about Jesus. And pray for this one man who got that letter. Pray that he will be courageous and tell others about Jesus.

<http://kompray.imb.org>