

February 26, 2010

"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

WHAT CAN I DO?

J tugged on his mother's sleeve to let her know he wanted to ask a question. A group of older Christians were meeting together in China. "I follow Jesus, and my mother does, but my father doesn't. What can I do?" One by one, the other Christians encouraged the young boy to pray for his father and continue to be faithful in following Jesus. Later, he learned a Bible story that he could tell his father. Pray that young believers in JZ City, China, will grow strong in their faith. Pray for their families and friends to learn to love Jesus too.

Today when you pray for the children in China, pray for your family too. Pray that your mom and dad will want to learn more and more about Jesus. Pray for those who don't go to church or don't want to hear about Jesus. Think about your favorite Bible story, and ask your mom and dad if you can tell them the story. Keep on praying for your family!

<http://kompray.imb.org>