"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

YOUR BEST FRIEND, JESUS

Sri Lanka is a nation where most of the people follow the Buddhist religion. A Sri Lankan pastor has a house church in a village called Wahuda (wah-HOO-duh). Some people in the village aren't very happy about the Christian church and started threatening the Sri Lankan pastor and a Christian woman who helps in the village. They wanted to scare and embarrass them so much that they would stop telling villagers about Jesus. The Christians have been a little nervous, but they are not ashamed of the Savior Jesus Christ.

A young boy goes to that house church. He took an end-of-term test recently where he wrote about the subject: "Who is your best friend and describe your relationship." The young boy was very courageous and wrote about his best friend, Jesus. Please pray for the boy that he will grow in his love for Jesus and that he will keep on telling others how to be saved.

Pray for all of the Christians in Wahuda, and other cities and villages in Sri Lanka, to be strong in their faith and not be afraid of empty threats.
