"Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these," Luke 18:16b

VISITING A CHIEFDOM

Members from First Baptist Church of Humboldt, Tennessee went to West Africa on another trip earlier this year and got to go to a school "Olympics" while there. It was in a chiefdom in Sierra Leone. Yes—a chiefdom. A kingdom is a place where the monarch, a king or queen, is leader. In a chiefdom, the chief rules. There are 48 villages in Sierra Leone that make up the chiefdom that the church visits.

They told the "Creation to Christ" Bible story to all of the students at the "Olympics."

There are 58 new believers in this chiefdom in just one of the villages! Please pray that more villages will welcome the people from First Baptist, Humboldt, and that they will be willing to listen to the stories of Jesus.

Baptist Global Response partnered with the church in an agricultural project. They are building a storehouse and now the families are planting new crops. Pray that their crops will grow and bring in enough food for the community.
