FUNDING
INTERNATIONAL
MISSIONS

Your church

As your church gives, prays and goes, unreached people — like the Manga Kanuri of West Africa, the Huishui Miao of China and the Uzbeks of Uzbekistan — gain access to the life-giving Gospel of Jesus Christ. They hear and respond because your IMB missionaries go with full support and because you give generously and sacrificially.

Cooperative Program

Your church's Cooperative Program contribution goes to your Southern Baptist state convention office. Between 14 percent and 57 percent goes from there to the SBC Executive Committee office in Nashville. Half of those funds go to the International Mission Board (IMB), and half go to other SBC entities. The IMB receives 35 percent of its total income from CP. That money, along with Lottie Moon Christmas Offering dollars, supports missionaries sharing the love of Jesus Christ around the world.

Into all the world

"There is no better way for your church to invest in eternal things than giving to missions ... that all peoples may know Him."

—Jerry Rankin

Lottie Moon Christmas Offering®
Your church's involvement in the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering provides for your IMB missionaries' day-to-day needs. Because you give sacrificially, your missionaries can spend their time reaching lost people instead of raising support. The offering comprises 54 percent of the IMB's total income, and every penny goes to missionaries and their ministries.

Other funding sources

Your special gifts and contributions to world hunger and relief projects allow your missionaries to engage in key ministries that help them gain trust, build relationships and, ultimately, change lives. Three percent of IMB income comes from such gifts, while investment returns make up the remaining 8 percent of income.

Partners in the great missions task

Your IMB missionaries give their lives to the missions task. Your faithful support keeps them on the field doing what God has called them to do. With each soul won to Christ, each new believer's baptism and each church-planting movement started, you are a faithful partner in the harvest.
